----- 21 Explanation.-Where a person to whom a licence relating to copyright in any future work is granted under this section dies before the work comes into existence, his legal representative shall, in the absence of any provision to the contrary in the licence, be entitled to the benefit of the licence. 31. Compulsory licence in works withheld from public. 31. (1)Compulsory licence in works withheld from public. If at any time during the term of copyright in any Indian work which has been published or performed in public, a complaint is made to the Copyright Board that the owner of copyright in the work- (a) has refused to republish or allow the republication of the work or has refused to allow the performance in public of the work, and by reason of such refusal the work is withheld from the public; or (b) has refused to allow communication to the public by broadcast of such work or in the case of a record the work recorded in such record, on terms which the complainant considers reasonable ; the Copyright Board, after giving to the owner of the copyright in the work a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after holding such inquiry as it may deem necessary, may, if it is satisfied that the grounds for such refusal are not reasonable, direct the Registrar of Copyrights to grant to the complainant a licence to republish the work, perform the work in public or communicate the work to the public by broadcast as the case may be, subject to payment to the owner of the copyright of such compensation and subject to such other terms and conditions as the Copyright Board may deter- mine ; and thereupon the Registrar of Copyrights shall grant the licence to the complainant in accordance with the directions of the Copyright Board, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed. Explanation.-In this sub-section, the expression " Indian work includes- (i) an artistic work, the author of which is a citizen of India; and (ii) a cinematograph film or a record made or manufactured in India. (2) Where two or more persons have made a complaint under sub-section (1), the licence shall be granted to the complainant who in the opinion of the Copyright Board would best serve the interests of the general public. 31A. (1) Compulsory licence in unpublished Indian works. Where, in the case of an Indian work referred to in Sub-clause (iii) of clause (1) of section 2, the author is dead or unknown or cannot be traced, or the owner of the copyright in such work cannot be found, any person may apply to the Copyright Board for a licence to publish such work or a translation thereof in any language. (2) Before making an application under sub-section (1), the applicant shall publish his proposal in one issue of a -daily news- paper in the English language having circulation in the major part of the country and where the application is for the publication of a translation in any language, also in one issue of any daily newspaper in that language. (3) Every such application shall be made in such form as may be prescribed and shall be accompanied with a copy of the advertisement issued under sub-section (2) and such fee as may be prescribed. (4) Where an application is made to the Copyright Board under this section, it may, after holding such inquiry as may be prescribed, direct the Registrar of Copyrights to grant to the applicant a licence to publish the work or a translation thereof in the language mentioned in the application subject to the payment of such royalty and subject to such other terms and conditions as the Copyright Board may determine, and thereupon the Registrar of Copyrights shall grant the licence to the applicant in accordance with the direction of the Copyright Board. (5) Where a licence is granted under this section, the Registrar of Copyrights may, by order, direct the applicant to deposit the amount of the royalty determined by the Copyright Board in the public account of India or in any other account specified by the Copyright Board so as to enable the owner of the copyright or, as the case may be, his heirs, executors or the legal representatives to claim such royalty at any time. (6) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this section, in the case of a work referred to in sub-section (1), if the original author is dead, the Central Government may, if -it considers that the publication of the work is desirable in the national interest, require the heirs,, executors or legal representatives of the author to publish such work within such period as may be specified by it. (7) Where any work is not published within the period specified by the Central Government under sub-section (6), the Copyright Board may, on an application made by any person for permission to publish the work and after hearing the parties concerned, permit such publication on payment of such royalty as the Copyright Board may, in the circumstances of such case, determine in the prescribed manner. ----- publish translations. 32.(1) Licence to produce and publish translations. Any person may apply to the Copyright Board for a licence to produce and publish a translation of a literary or dramatic work in any language. after a period of seven years from the first publication of the work. (1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section . (1), any person may apply to the Copyright-Board for a licence to produce and publish a translation, in printed or analogous forms of reproduction, of a literary or dramatic work, other than an Indian work, in any language in general use in India after a period of three years from the first publication of such work, if such translation is required for the purposes of teaching, scholarship or research: Provided that where such translation is in a language in general use in any developed country, such application may be made after a period of one year from such publication. (2) Every application under this section shall be made in such form as may prescribed and shall state the proposed retail price of a copy of the translation of the work. (3) Every applicant for a licence under this section shall, along with his application, deposit with the Registrar of Copyrights such fee as may be prescribed. (4) Where an application is made to the Copyright Board under this section, it may, after holding such inquiry as may be prescribed, grant to the applicant a licence, not being an exclusive licence, to produce and publish a translation of the work in the language mentioned in the application- (i) subject to the condition that the applicant shall pay to the owner of the copyright in the work royalties in respect of copies of the translation of the work sold to the public, calculated at such rate as the Copyright Board may, in the circumstances of each case, determine in the prescribed manner; and (ii) where such licence is granted on an application under sub-section (1A), subject also to the condition that the licence shall not extend to the export of copies of the translation of the work outside India and every copy of such translation shall contain a notice in the language of such translation that the copy is available for distribution only in India: Provided that nothing in clause (ii) shall apply to the export by Government or any authority under the Government of copies of such translation in a language other than English, French or Spanish to any country if- (1) such copies are sent to citizens of India residing outside India or to any association -of such citizens out- side India; or (2) such copies are meant to be used for purposes of teaching, scholarship or research and 'not for any commercial' purposes; and (3) in either case, the permission for such export has been given by the Government of that country Provided further that no licence under this section shall be granted, unless-- (a) a translation of the work in the language mentioned in the application has not been published by the owner of the copyright in the work or any person authorised by him, within seven years or three years or one year, as the case may be, of the first publication of the work, if a translation has been so published, it has been out of print ; (b) the applicant has proved to the satisfaction of the Copyright Board that he had requested and had been denied authorisation by the owner of the copyright to produce and publish such translation, or that he was, after due diligence on his part, unable to find the owner of the copyright ; (c) where the applicant was unable to find the owner of the copyright, he had sent a copy of his request for such authorisation by registered air mail post to the publisher whose name appears from the work, and in the case of an application for a licence under sub-section (1), not less than two months before such application. (cc) a period of six months in the case of an application under sub-section (1A) (not being an application under the proviso thereto), or nine months in the case of an application under the proviso to that sub-section, has elapsed from the date of making the request under clause (b) of this proviso, or where a copy of the request has been sent under clause (c) of this proviso, from the date of sending of such copy, and the translation of the work in the language mentioned in the application has not been published by the owner of the copyright in the work or any person authorised by him within the said period of six months or nine months, as the case may be; (ccc) in the case of any application made under sub-section (1A),-- (i) the name of the author and the title of the particular edition of the work proposed to be translated are printed on all the copies of the translation; (ii) if the work is composed mainly of illustrations, the provisions of section 32A are also complied with; (d) the Copyright Board is satisfied that the applicant is competent to produce and publish a correct translation of the work and possesses the means to pay to the owner of the copyright the royalties payable to him under this section ; ----- 1 Ins. and Subs. by Act 23 of 1983, s.3 (w.e.f. 9.8.1984) ----- 23 (e) the author has not withdrawn from circulation copies of the work; and (f) an opportunity of being heard is given, wherever practicable, to the owner of the copyright in the work. (5) Any broadcasting authority may apply to the Copyright Board for a licence to produce and publish the translation of- (a) a work referred to in subsection (1A) and published in printed or analogous forms of reproduction; or (b) any text incorporated in audio-visual fixations prepared and published solely for the purpose of systematic instructional activities, for broadcasting such translation for the purposes of teaching or for the dissemination of the results of specialized, technical or scientific research to the experts in any particular field. (6) The provisions of sub-sections (2) to (4) in so far as they are relatable to an application under sub-section (1A), shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to the grant of a licence under sub-section (5) and such licence shall not also be granted unless- (a) the translation is made from a work lawfully acquired; (b) the broadcast is made through the medium of sound and visual recordings; (c) such recording has been lawfully and exclusively made for the purpose of broadcasting in India by the applicant or by any other broadcasting agency; and (d) the translation and the broadcasting of such translation are not used for any commercial purposes. Explanation.-For the purposes of this section,- (a) "developed country" means a country which, is not a developing country; (b) "developing country" means a country which is for the time being -regarded as, such in conformity with the practice of the General Assembly of the United Nations; (c) "purposes of research" does not include purposes of industrial research, or purposes of research by bodies corporate (not being bodies, corporate owned or controlled by Government) or other associations or body of persons for commercial purposes. (d) "purposes of teaching, research or scholarship" includes- (i) purposes of instructional activity at all levels in educational institutions, including Schools, Colleges, Universities and tutorial institutions; and. (ii) purposes of all other types of organised educational activity. 32A. (1) Licence to reproduce and publish works for certain purposes. Where, after the expiration of the relevant period from the date of the first publication of an edition of a literary, scientific or artistic work,- (a) the copies of such edition are not made available in India; or (b) such copies have not been put on sale in India for a period of six months, to the general public, or in connection with systematic instructional activities at a price reasonably related to that normally charged in India for comparable works by the owner of the right of reproduction or by any person authorised by him In this behalf, any person may apply to the, Copyright Board for a licence to reproduce and publish such work in printed or analogous forms of reproduction at the price at which such edition is sold or at a lower price for the purposes of systematic instructional activities. (2) Every such application shall be made in such form as may be prescribed and shall state the proposed retail price of a copy of the work to be reproduced. (3) Every applicant for a licence under this section shall, along with his. application, deposit with the Registrar of Copyrights such fee as may be prescribed. (4) Where an application is made to the Copyright Board under this section, it may, after holding such inquiry as may be prescribed, grant to the applicant a licence, not being an -exclusive licence, to produce and publish a reproduction of the work mentioned in the application subject to the conditions that,- (i) the applicant shall pay to the owner of the copyright in the work royalties in respect of copies of the reproduction of the work sold to the public, calculated at such rate as the Copyright Board may, in the circumstances of each case, determine in the prescribed manner; (ii) a licence granted under this section shall not extend to the export of copies of the reproduction of the work outside India -and every copy of such reproduction shall contain a notice that the copy is available for distribution only in India: Provided that no such licence shall be granted unless- (a)the applicant has proved to the satisfaction of the Copyright Board that he had requested and had been denied authorisation by the owner of the copyright in the work to reproduce and publish such work or that he was, after due diligence on his part, unable to find such owner; (b)where the applicant was unable to find the owner of the copyright, he had sent a copy of his request for such authorisation by registered air-mail post to the published whose name appears from the work not less than three months before the application for the licence; (c)the Copyright Board is satisfied that the applicant is competent to reproduce and publish, an accurate reproduction of the work and possesses the means to pay to the owner of the copyright the royalties payable to him under this section; (d)the applicant undertakes to reproduce and publish the work at such price as may be fixed by the Copyright Board, being a price reasonably related to the price normally charged in India for works of the same standard on the same or similar subjects; (e)a period of six months in the case of an application for the reproduction and publication of any work of natural science, physical science, mathematics or technology, or a period of three months in the case of an application for the reproduction and publication of any other work, has elapsed from the date of making the request under clause (a), or where a copy of the request has been sent under clause (b), from the date of sending of a copy, and a reproduction of the work has not been published by the owner of the copyright in the work or any person authorised by him within the said period of six months or, three months, as the case may be; (f)the name of the author and the title of the particular edition of the work proposed to be reproduced are printed on all the copies of the reproduction; (g)the author has not withdrawn from circulation copies of the work; and (h)an opportunity of being heard is given, wherever practicable, to the owner of the copyright in the work. (5) No licence to -reproduce and publish the translation of a work shall be granted under this section unless such translation has been published by the owner of the right of translation or any person authorised by him and the translation is not in a language in general use in India. (6)The provisions of this section shall also apply to the re- production and publication, or translation into a language in general use the India, of any text incorporated in audiovisual fixations pre pared and published solely for the. purpose of systematic instruc- tional activities. Explanation.-For the purposes of this section, "relevant period", in relation to any work, means a period of- (a) seven years from the date of the first publication of that work, where the application is for the reproduction and publication of any work of, or relating to, fiction, poetry, drama, music or art; (b) three years from the date of the first publication of that work, where the application is for the reproduction and publication of any work -of, or relating to, natural science, physical science, mathematics or technology; and (c) five years from the date of the first publication of that work, in any other case. 32B. (1)Termination of licences issued under this Chapter. If, at any time after the granting of a licence to produce and publish the translation of a work in any language under subsection (1A) of section 32 (hereafter in this sub-section referred to as the licensed work),, the owner of the copyright in the work or any person authorised by him publishes a translation of such work in the same language and which is substantially the same in content at a price reasonably related to the price normally charged in India for the translation of works of the same standard on the same or similar subject, the licence so granted shall be terminated: Provided that no such termination shall take effect until after the expiry of a period of three months from the date of service of a notice in the prescribed manner. on the person holding such licence by the owner of the right of translation intimating the publication of the translation as aforesaid: Provided further that copies of the licensed work produced and published by the person holding such licence before the termination of the licence takes effect may continue to be sold or distributed until the copies already produced and published are exhausted. (2) If, at any time after the granting of a licence to produce and publish the reproduction or translation of any work under section 32A, the owner of the right of-reproduction or any person authorised by him sells or distributes copies -of such work or a translation thereof, as the case may be, in the same language and which is substantially the same in content at a price reasonably related to the price normally charged in India for works of the same standard on the same or similar subject, the licence so granted shall be terminated: Provided that no such termination shall take effect until after the expiry of a period of three months from the date of service of a notice in the prescribed manner on the person holding the licence by the owner of the right of reproduction intimating. the sale or distri- bution of the copies of the editions of work as aforesaid- Provided further that any copies already reproduced by the licensee before such termination takes effect may continue to be sold or distributed until the copies already produced are exhausted.

CHAP PERFORMING RIGHTS SOCIETIES CHAPTER VII PERFORMING RIGHTS SOCIETIES 33. Performing rights society to file statements of fees, charges and royalties.

33. (1)Performing rights society to file statements of fees, charges and royalties. Every performing rights society shall, within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, prepare, publish and file with the Registrar of Copyrights, statements of all fees, charges or royalties which it proposes to collect for the grant of licences for performance in public of works in respect of which it has authority to grant such licences. (2) If any such society fails to prepare, publish or file with the Registrar of Copyrights the statements referred to in sub-section (1) in relation to any work in accordance with the provisions of that sub-section, no action or other proceeding to enforce any remedy, civil or criminal, for infringement of the performing rights in that work shall be commenced except with the consent of the Registrar of Copyrights.

34. Objections relating to published statements. 34.Objections relating to published statements. Any person having any objections to any fees, charges or royalties or other particulars included in any statement referred to in section 33 may at any time lodge such objections in writing at the Copyright Office.

35. Determination of objections. 35. (1)Determination of objections. Every objection lodged at the Copyright Office under section 34 shall, as soon as may be, be referred to the Copyright Board and the Copyright Board shall decide such objection in the manner hereinafter provided. (2) The Copyright Board shall, in respect of every such objec- tion, give notice thereof to the performing rights society concerned (3) The Copyright Board shall, after giving such society and the person who lodged the objection a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after making such further inquiry as may be prescribed, make such alterations in the statements as it may think fit, and shall transmit the alterations made by it to the Registrar of Copyrights, who shall thereupon, as soon as practicable after the receipt of such alterations, publish them in the Official Gazette and furnish the performing rights society concerned and the person who lodged the objection with a copy thereof. ----- 1 Ins. by Act 23 of 1983,s.13 (w.e.f. 9.8.1984) 2 Ins. by s.14, ibid (w.e.f.9.8.1984) -----

24 (4) The fees, charges or royalties as altered by the Copyright Board shall be the fees, charges or royalties which the performing rights society concerned may respectively lawfully sue for or collect in respect of the grant by it of licences for the performance in public of works to which such fees, charges or royalties relate. (5) No performing rights society shall have any right of action or any right to enforce any civil or other remedy for infringement of the performing rights in any work against any person who has tendered or paid to such society the fees, charges or royalties specified in respect of that work in a statement published by that society under sub-section (1) of section 33 or where such statement has been altered by the Copyright Board under this section in the statement so altered. (6) Where any person has lodged an objection at the Copyright Office regarding the fees, charges or royalties in respect of any work included in a statement published under section 33, that person or any other person, on depositing such fees, charges or royalties at the Copyright Office, may, pending the final decision of such objection by the Copyright Board or the High Court, as the case may be, perform that work without infringing the copyright therein. (7) The fees, charges or royalties deposited at the Copyright Office under sub-section (6) shall be paid to the performing rights society concerned or to the person who made the deposit, or partly to such society and partly to such person, in accordance with the final decision on the objection as aforesaid. 36. Exiting rights not affected. 36. Exiting rights not affected. Nothing in this Chapter shall be deemed to affect- (a) any rights or liabilities in relation to the performing rights in any work accrued or incurred before the commencement of this Act ; (b) any legal proceedings in respect of such rights or liabilities pending at such commencement. ----- 36 CHAP CIVIL REMEDIES CHAPTER XII CIVIL REMEDIES

54. Definition. 54. Definition. For the purposes of this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression "owner of copyright" shall include- (a) an exclusive licensee; (b) in the case of an anonymous or pseudonymous literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work, the publisher of the work, until the identity of the author or, in the case of an anonymous work of joint authorship, or a work of joint authorship published under names all of which are pseudonyms, the identity of any of the authors, is disclosed publicly by the author and the publisher or is otherwise established to the satisfaction of the Copyright Board by that author or his legal representatives. 55. Civil remedies for infringement of copyright. 55. (1) Civil remedies for infringement of copyright. Where copyright in any work has been infringed, the owner of the copyright shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act, be entitled to all such remedies by way of injunction, damages, accounts and otherwise as are or may be conferred by law for the infringement of a right: Provided that if the defendant proves that at the date of the infringement he was not aware and had no reasonable ground for believing that copyright subsisted in the work, the plaintiff shall not be entitled to any remedy other than an injunction in respect of the infringement and a decree for the whole or part of the profits made by the defendant by the sale of the infringing copies as the court may in the circumstances deem reasonable. (2) Where, in the case of a literary, dramatic, musical or artistic work, a name purporting to be that of the author or the publisher, as the case may be, appears on copies of the work as published, or, in the case of an artistic work, appeared on the work when it was made, the person whose name so appears or appeared shall, in any proceeding in respect of infringement of copyright in such work, be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, to be the author or the publisher of the work, as the case may be. (3) The costs of all parties in any proceedings in respect of the infringement of copyright shall be in the discretion of the court. 56. Protection of separate rights. 56. Subject to the provisions of this Act, where the several rights comprising the copyright in any work are owned by different persons, 37 the owner of any such right shall, to the extent of that right, be entitled to the remedies provided by this Act and may individually enforce such right by means of any suit, action or other proceeding without making the owner of any other right a party to such suit, action or proceeding. 57. Author's special rights. 57.(1) Author's special rights. Independently of the author's copyright, and even after the assignment either wholly or partially of the said copyright, the author of a work shall have the right to claim the authorship of the work as well as the right to restrain, or claim damages in respect of,- (a) any distortion, mutilation or other modification of the said work; or (b) any other action in relation to the said work which would be prejudicial to his honour or reputation. (2) The right conferred upon an author of a work by sub-section (1), other than the right to claim authorship of the work, may be exercised by the legal representatives of the author: 58. Right of owner against persons possessing or dealing with infringing copies. 58. Right of owner against persons possessing or dealing with infringing copies. All infringing copies of any work in which copyright subsists, and all plates used or intended to be used for the production of such infringing copies, shall be deemed to be the property of the owner of the copyright, who accordingly may take proceedings for the recovery of possession thereof or in respect of the conversion thereof: Provided that the owner of the copyright shall not be entitled to any remedy in respect of the conversion of any infringing copies, if the opponent proves- (a) that he was not aware and had no reasonable ground to believe that copyright subsisted in the work of which such copies are alleged to be infringing copies ; or (b) that he had reasonable grounds for believing that such copies or plates do not involve infringement of the copyright in any work. 59. Restriction on remedies in the case of words of architecture. 59. (1) Restriction on remedies in the case of words of architecture. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Specific Relief Act 1963, where the construction of a building or other structure which infringes or which, if completed, would infringe the copyright in some other work has been commenced, the owner of the copyright shall not be entitled to obtain an injunction to restrain the construction of such building or structure or to order its demolition.
